

Program: Veterans Day Salute with the New Horizons Swing Band

Attendance: 82

Guests: Ruth A. Schmidt

Scribe: Hank Wolfla

Editor: Bill Elliott

Today, we were once again treated to music played by the New Horizons Swing Band. This has been a yearly Veteran's Day event, and the band members appear to be getting younger with each passing performance. The songs played in order were the "National Anthem", Arm Forces songs, Glenn Miller's "Pennsylvania 6-5000", "Jersey Bounce", "Baby, It's Cold Outside", "How High the Moon", "String of Pearls", "Whatever Lola Wants", "The Very Thought of You", "Sing, Sing, Sing", and "Stars and Stripes Forever".

"Baby It's Cold Outside" was a duet sung by Don Hine, and Debbie Lewis. Debbie Lewis sang an excellent rendition of "Whatever Lola Wants". There was a saxophone solo of "The Very Thought of You" done by Judy Dunlop.

The MC was Don Hine, and the band leader was Al Spangler.

Thanks to Hank Wolfla for his scribe efforts, and especially thanks go out to the New Horizons Swing Band.
